Active Bystander Workshop for Employees

Tuesday, April 5, 9 to 10:30 a.m., Altgeld 125

Thursday, April 14, 11 a.m. to noon, Zoom

Contribute to creating a safe and respectful workplace environment where we can all thrive. Gain tools to safely address and stop workplace harassment and discrimination. Think about and evaluate cultural norms that influence the experiences that you and your colleagues have within the work setting.

Active Bystander Workshop for Students

Tuesday, April 5, 2 to 3:30 p.m., Zoom

The Active Bystander Workshop encourages Huskies to engage in healthy campus culture surrounding violence and sexual misconduct. It takes all of us to start the conversation and change the culture.

Start by Believing

Tuesday, April 12, 10 to 11 a.m., Zoom

Presented by Safe Passage.

How we respond to victims of sexual assault has an incredible impact on their healing journey. Start By Believing challenges our community to change our mindset on sexual abuse and how we can support survivors while challenging violence.

Rape Culture IRL

Wednesday, April 13, 2 to 3 p.m., Heritage Room,
Holmes Student Center (HSC)

Rape culture permeates our everyday lives. Join us to have an open discussion about what rape culture is, how it presents in our culture and how we can fight against it.

Art Night – sponsored by Safe Passage

Friday, April 15, 7 to 9 p.m.

The House Café, 263 E. Lincoln Highway

Join Safe Passage and the community to view survivor stories in the form of art. Support local survivors by viewing curated art and having conversations with staff about the services they provide to the community.

Womanist Wednesday

Wednesday, April 20, 1 to 3 p.m., DuSable Hall, main floor.

In collaboration with GSRC.

Join the Gender and Sexuality Resource Center and Prevention Education and Outreach for April Womanist Wednesday. This interactive tabling session highlighting Sexual Assault Awareness Month will break the silence around sexual assault, amplify the voices of survivors and provide education around the topic of sexual assault.

Take Back the Night – sponsored by Safe Passage

Thursday, April 21, 6 to 7 p.m., The Egyptian Theatre

Take Back the Night will raise awareness for sexual assault and for survivors. A march and stories will be shared. Signs with encouraging messages aren't required but encouraged.

Walk A Mile

Saturday, April 30, 11 a.m., East Lagoon

In collaboration with Safe Passage.

A walk around campus to raise awareness of sexual assault and remind our community that there is never an excuse for sexual violence. For more information and to register visit safepassagedv.org.

“Know My Name” Book Club – sponsored by Safe Passage

Mondays in April, 6 to 7 p.m.

Teen Room of the Dekalb Public Library.

Join the community and Safe Passage staff at a weekly book club. Every Monday in April from 6 to 7 p.m. in the Teen Room of the Dekalb Public Library. No registration required.

Shatter the Silence one event at a time.

Grab an event card at any one of the events and collect stamps. Individuals who attend four or more of the above events will be entered into a drawing for a gift basket provided by ADEI and Safe Passage. Open to NIU students, faculty and community members.

To request disability-related accommodations, please contact the Disability Resource Center at 753-1303 as early as possible. Advance notice is appreciated.
